

2019-2020 Student Activity Fee Student Organization Funding Report

The amount of the Student Activity Fee for 2019-20 was $330 and was used to support the operation, maintenance, and debt service expenditures for Student Engagement and Campus Life and for support of various student organization programming activities as determined by the Student Budget Board. For 2019-20, $1,612,222 was available to be allocated to support student organizations, which included a base allocation of $1,235,889 for fiscal year 2019-20, and $376,333 of unspent and/or unallocated funds carried forward from the prior fiscal year.

Student organizations applying for student activity fee funding must submit budget requests to be reviewed by the Student Budget Board (SBB). Only organizations that have registered with Student Engagement and Campus Life, are eligible to submit a budget request. All organizations may be asked to appear before the board to present their request and to answer questions of the board members. The board is governed by funding policies approved by the Commission on Student Affairs (CSA).

The Student Budget Board, a standing committee under the CSA, is responsible for reviewing budget requests and making funding decisions for University Chartered Student Organizations (UCSO), University Student Life Programs (USLP), and Registered Student Organizations (RSO). Its membership is composed of Virginia Tech students. The Student Budget Board is advised by the Associate Director of Student Engagement and Campus Life, a full time, administrative staff member.

The following groups received funding through the budget board process. For more information about an organization, please go to the Virginia Tech homepage www.vt.edu and select "Clubs, Organizations, and Involvement" under the Campus Life menu section.

Academic Competition Organization	The Academic Competition Organization at Virginia Tech (ACO-VT) is an academic team that participates in intercollegiate Quizbowl competitions and hosts high school and collegiate competitions. Along with our competition season, VTACO strives to make Quizbowl more accessible in both the high school and collegiate level and to have fun!	$559.00
Acoustical Society of American Student Chapter @VT	The goal of the organization is to explore and learn about acoustics. Each semester, we build a demo that illustrates a fundamental concept of acoustics; for example, last semester, we built an Active Noise Control (ANC) demo to learn the principles of the active noise control technology featured in modern headphones. The organization also encourages attendance of ASA conferences where we can learn about different acoustics projects/research that other ASA chapters are involved in, seek opportunities for collaboration with other chapters and industry, and present our own work.	$2,778.00
Active Minds	Active Minds is a student-led mental health group that works to raise awareness about mental health, raise funds for critical mental health education and resources, promote positive mental health and wellness, educate students and educators about the signs and symptoms of mental health disorders, and encourage students who are struggling to reach out and seek help.	$566.00
African Student Association	The African Students Association - Virginia Tech Chapter is a non-exclusive, cultural, social, and educational body geared towards serving the community and promoting unity and cultural awareness between all who find interest in Africa and its diaspora.	$3,920.00
Ahlubayt Student Association	Ahlul-Bayt Student Association (ABSA) is a determined and goal-orientated gathering of Muslims on campus whose aim is to offer an academic medium for the followers of the Ahlul-Bayt (as) and to propagate the teachings of the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet Muhammad. ABSA's mission clearly entails cooperation with other societies, to build a friendly and frank ambiance on campus; free from prejudice, racism and discrimination.	$3,655.00

Ask Big Questions	Ask Big Questions Fellowship/Internship is an opportunity for students to challenge each other to think outside of the box in conversation. It is a chance to master some powerful skills, form deep connections, build community on campus and learn about yourself. Ask Big Questions Conversations create a safe space for people to share ideas on topics that they wouldn't have the opportunity to discuss otherwise. We discuss questions such as "What informs your identity?" "For whom are we responsible?" and "Are we free?". The creation of safe spaces on our campus is necessary in order to be able to hear opinions that differ from the majority. A place in which someone who is often the minority can openly share their views and experiences allows for people who are generally part of the majority to widen their world view and understanding. Safe spaces exist for many minority groups, however ABQ conversations differ because they are not only a safe space for minorities they are a safe space for people of all backgrounds to come together and have these meaningful conversations so that everyone involved may leave with a new perspective. At a campus that can sometimes seem rather lacking in diversity, Ask Big Questions strives to create a sense of diversity through our facilitated conversations. In the past Ask Big Questions has organized a multitude of conversations across campus on various topics for various groups. We hosted conversations for most of the cultural months, for organizations on campus such as LGBTA, SERVE, and VT Engage. If you would like ABQ to lead a conversation for your organization or at an event you are holding contact us!	$13,551.00

Open Dialogue, Ideas, & News	ODIN is a podcast production and music appreciation club that brings valuable information and open dialogue to Virginia Tech and the surrounding community. We hope to foster within individuals an ability to recognize and follow meaning in their lives how they see fit. We have found the intersection of music and in-depth discussions to be a place of maximal meaning and want to share this with everyone. Discussing a wide range of topics, exploring ancient wisdom, and gaining a deeper appreciation for music is the focus of our organization. Together they coalesce into a holistic sense of meaningful engagement. This helps us free our minds, expand our perspective, and develop clarity in our life direction. Music is one of the most fascinating experiential phenomena we can access. Something about it seems to pull us beyond the mundane and speak to us on a deeper level. It is an interesting thing, as it has this transcendental element, and you almost never find someone who doesn't like music. It is a meaningful experience that plays a powerful role in our culture, maybe because it touches something beyond our rational mind. It grounds us, connects us, and has intrinsic meaning that requires no logical reasoning. From this place of meaning new ideas arise; this is where the unknown manifests and leads to the discussion of topics that can shed new light on the world. ODIN is focused on creating that sense of community that has grown ever more elusive in today's world. To be a sanctuary where individuals can step away from the world together, collect their thoughts, make/listen to music, and articulate a system of shared values. This makes for a more peaceful, understanding community for all of us.	$1,440.00

The Comedy Conglomerate of VT	We are an organization dedicated to creating a comedic environment on campus. So far we've focused on stand up comedy and orchestrating stand up comedy events. We've had comedians perform at Milk Parlor, TOTS, She-Sha, and Deet's Place, and we look to expand our venues as we expand our members' capabilities. Our members are actively active and contribute something to each meeting, performance, and feedback process. We plan to continue our stand up efforts as well as explore other forms of comedy like: Comedy music, YouTube sketches, and cartoons. Our main goal is to expand our comedic efforts on- and off-campus, and bring big name comedians to the area of Blacksburg and Virginia Tech.	$7,500.00

The Consulting Group	The Consulting Group at Virginia Tech is bridging the gap between Virginia Tech students and business consulting firms from around the world. As an industry-oriented club, we help the student body at Virginia Tech learn more about a career in consulting. Members work with businesses around the Blacksburg area on a pro bono basis in developing business and strategy solutions while advancing their knowledge and honing their skills on real consulting issues. In preparation for projects, analysts analysts participate in a one semester training program that will allow them to succeed as competitive candidates for entry-level consulting jobs. During our company workshops, we are constantly expanding our knowledge by receiving cutting-edge information that consulting firms are dealing with. The tailored presentations provide a realistic point of view and an inside scoop of what consultants are being faced with at that moment. After presentations we present a networking opportunity between students and employers, promoting information exchange and experience-sharing among students. We offer first-hand consulting experience with our clients. Continuous preparation and training through case studies, case competitions, company workshops, and mock interviews allow us to maintain high quality in our deliverables. All in all we provide students with valuable insight into consulting, bridge the gap with recruiting firms, and give them the experience both students and consulting firms desire.	$2,500.00
Theriogenology Club	The Theriogenology Club offers veterinary students an opportunity to learn more about reproductive medicine and technologies outside of the classroom.
